Dear Bill:

STAT A constituent from Vermont, [redacted]
STAT recently inquired about employment possibilities at the STAT Select Committee on Intelligence. Unfortunately, on our STAT small staff we have no opening for [redacted]
However, I am so impressed by his extraordinary background in military matters, intelligence and Soviet affairs, including the Russian language, that I wanted to call him to the attention of your agency. It may be that you would have a use for someone of [redacted] extensive experience, and particularly his Russian language ability.

STAT I hope you can give him careful consideration. I would STAT appreciate hearing from you on whether there might be a need for [redacted] at the CIA.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Pat

Patrick Leahy
Vice Chairman

Dear Senator Leahy:

I am writing to apply for employment as a staff member of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence.

I desire to return to work in a profession for which I possess the requisite education, experience, and aptitude to build a successful career.

I am completely conversant with the national intelligence process and with the organization and functions of the US Intelligence Community.

I am a superior manager/administrator, an articulate, persuasive communicator, and a person who enjoys the "people-and-politics" dimension of decision-making and policy-making.

For initial references, you may contact Lieutenant General William E. Odom, Director, National Security Agency and Lieutenant General (Retired)

In the event of your further interest, I shall be happy to come to Washington, D.C. for a personal interview and a polygraph test.
